SUPREME COURT OF INDIA*New Delhi, the 17th August 1967*

No. F. 49/66-SCA(i).—The following amendments to the Supreme Court Officers & Servants (Conditions of Service and Conduct) Rules, 1961 are hereby published for general information:—

1. In the existing rule 29, the following Proviso and Explanation shall be added:

'Provided, however, that in the case of giving information to the Press, the Registrar alone, unless the Chief Justice authorises some other officer, shall meet the representatives of the Press and give information. He shall, however, submit for the information of the Chief Justice, the gist of the subjects discussed.

NOTE.—(This proviso, however, will not apply to supply of Court Judgements to the Press.)

*Explanation:—*Quotation by a Court servant (in his representation to the Registrar or the Chief Justice) of or from any letter, circular or office memorandum or from the notes of any file, to which he is not authorised to have access, or which he is not authorised to keep in his personal custody or for personal purposes, shall amount to unauthorised communication of information within the meaning of this rule."

2. Add the following Explanation to rule 41:

Explanation:—'Strike' means refusal to work or stoppage or slowing down of work by a group of employees acting in combination, and includes:—

- mass abstention from work without permission (which is wrongly described as "mass casual leave");
- refusal to work overtime where such overtime is necessary in the public interest;
- resort to practices or conduct which is likely to result in, or results in the cessation or substantial retardation of work in the Supreme Court or any department of the Supreme Court. Such practices would include, what are called, 'go-slow', 'sit-down', 'pen-down', 'stay-in', 'token', 'sympathetic' or any other similar strike; absence from work for participation in a Bandh or any similar movements.

NOTE.—The list of activities which are covered under the definition of strike as enumerated herein is only illustrative and not exhaustive.
